

is in need of protection.” Again, plaintiff fails to identify what unnamed forces are violating his rights and/or prohibiting his access to the Court. Therefore, the Court finds plaintiff is not entitled to any court-ordered “protection.”

Finally, the Court reminds plaintiff that failure to comply with the various deadlines set forth in the Court’s order dated February 28, 2013 (Doc. #156), and memorandum decision dated April 2, 2013 (Doc. #166), may result in his case being dismissed for failure to prosecute pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).

The Court certifies pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3) that any appeal from this order would not be taken in good faith, and therefore in forma pauperis status is denied for the purpose of an appeal. See Coppedge v United States, 369 U.S. 438, 444-45 (1962).
